Das Hund Haus

3210 Reynolds Rd., Lakeland, FL 33803

Janice will be discussing her proven methods to develop a strong relationship and working bond between you and your dog. Janice will explain how to build “want to”, focus, and joy into your dog’s daily training routine. She will introduce touch pads, platforms, shaping, building drive and how to cap it. Janice will also work with you on how to use marker training properly, attention, focus, impulse control games and how to use remote rewards! Whether you are a serious competitor in obedience or rally or a handler who wants more skills and tools to get better or more responsive behaviors from your dogs, this seminar is for you!
